LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL.

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,

OFFICE OF THE SOLICITOR,

Washington, D. C., March 27, 1915.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith a digest, compiled under my direction by Mr. Otis H. Gates, of this office, of the laws applicable to the Department of Agriculture enacted since October 24, 1914. The compilation published in 1913 and the second supplement thereto embrace all such laws passed by Congress down to and including its session ending on that day.

I recommend the publication of this as a third supplement for the use of the officers and employees of the department.

Respectfully,

FRANCIS G. CAFFEY, Solicitor.

Hon. DAVID F. HOUSTON,

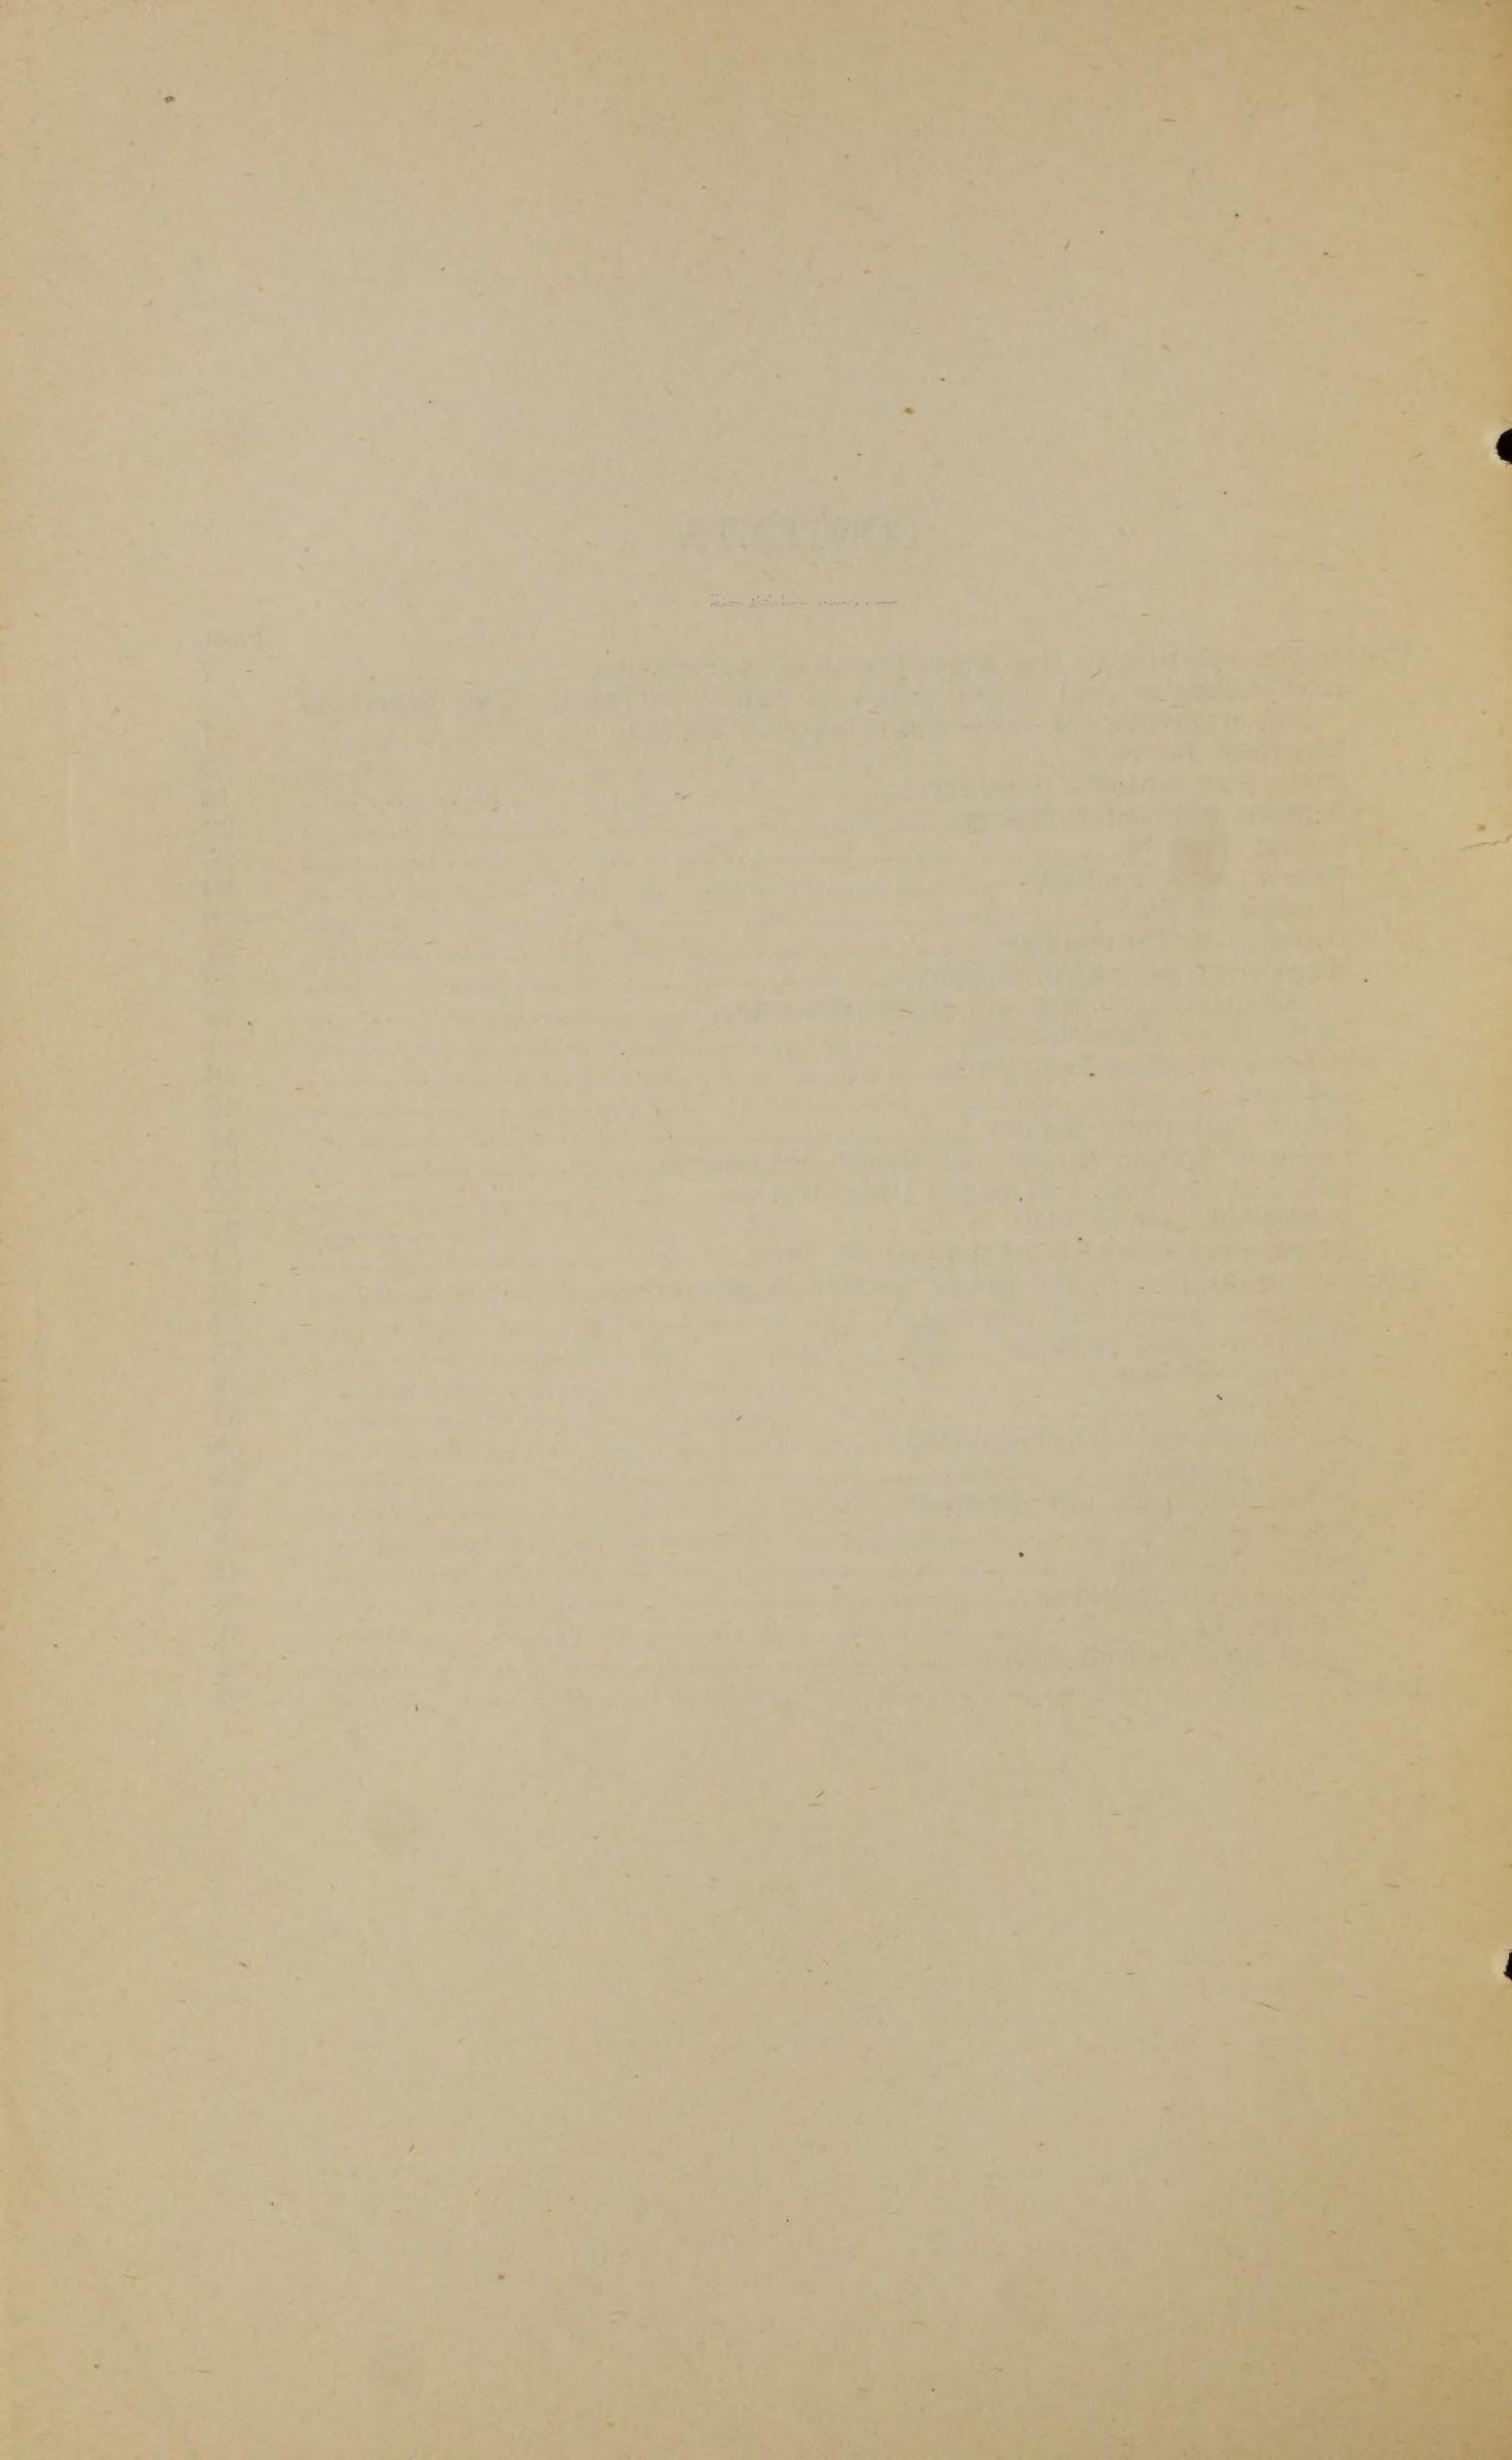

Secretary of Agriculture.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

ESTABLISHMENT AND ORGANIZATION OF THE DEPARTMENT— THE SECRETARY AND OTHER OFFICERS—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

(See "Laws Applicable to the United States Department of Agriculture," 1912, pp. 9-33; "Second Supplement," pp. 5-14.)

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 144. (38 Stat. 1086.)

Lump-sum appropriations available for purchase, maintenance, etc., of motor-propelled and horse-drawn passenger-carrying vehicles and motor boats; limitation amount expended for purchase; restriction to official use; report to Congress on amount expended.

That not to exceed $55,000 of the lump-sum appropriations herein made for the Department of Agriculture shall be available for the purchase, maintenance, repair, and operation of motor-propelled and horse-drawn passenger-carrying vehicles and motor boats necessary in the conduct of the field work of the Department of Agriculture outside the District of Columbia: Provided, That not to exceed $5,000 of this amount shall be expended for the purchase of such vehicles and boats, and that such vehicles and boats shall be used only for official service outside the District of Columbia, but this shall not prevent the continued use for official service of motor trucks in the District of Columbia: Provided further, That the Secretary of Agriculture shall, on the first day of each regular session of Congress, make a report to Congress showing the amount expended under the provisions of this paragraph during the preceding fiscal year.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1115.

This is a paragraph, under the heading, "Miscellaneous," of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above.

Similar provisions, contained in the agricultural appropriation act for the preceding fiscal year, act June 30, 1914, c. 131, are set forth in "Second Supplement," p. 7.

By provisions of act July 16, 1914, c. 141, s. 5, set forth on p. 102, post, no appropriation shall be used for the purchase, etc., of passenger-carrying vehicles, unless specially authorized by law, and annual detailed estimates of appropriations for such purposes are required.

Under act February 3, 1905, c. 297, s. 4, set forth in "Laws Applicable to the United States Department of Agriculture," 1912, p. 306, no appropriation shall be used for purchasing, maintaining, driving, or operating carriages or vehicles (other than those for the use of the President, the heads of departments, and the Secretary to the President, and those used for transporting Government property), for the personal or official use of officers or employees of the departments, etc., at Washington, unless authorized by law and provided for in terms by appropriations, and all such carriages and vehicles shall have conspicuously painted thereon the full name of the department, etc., to which they belong.

By a provision of act March 18, 1904, c. 716, s. 3, set forth in "Laws Applicable to the United States Department of Agriculture," 1912, p. 305, no appropriation shall be available for paying expenses of horses and carriages or drivers therefor for the personal use of Government officers other than the President, the heads of departments, the Secretary to the President, and officials outside of the District of Columbia in the performance of their public duties.

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 144. (38 Stat. 1086.)

Sale of samples of sugars, naval stores, microscopical specimens, etc., to State, etc., officers, educational institutions, etc., authorized; disposition of receipts.

* * * and hereafter the Secretary of Agriculture may furnish, upon application, samples of pure sugars, naval stores, microscopical specimens, and other products to State and municipal officers, educational institutions, and other parties and charge for the same a price to cover the cost thereof, such price to be determined and established by the Secretary, and the money received from sales to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts; * * *

Act March 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1101.

This is a provision of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 144. (38 Stat. 1086.)

Use of Maltby Building and other buildings by Department of Agriculture, authorized.

Until otherwise ordered the Maltby Building and all the buildings on the west side of New Jersey Avenue, between B and C Streets northwest, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, belonging to the Government may be used for governmental purposes by the Agricultural Department.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1108.

This is a paragraph, under the heading "Miscellaneous Expenses," of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 144. (38 Stat. 1086.)

Statement of rent paid required in estimates.

* * * That the Secretary of Agriculture shall submit annually to Congress in his estimates of appropriations a statement showing what proportion of this appropriation is paid for the quarters occupied by the various branches of the department.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1108.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for rent of buildings for the Department of Agriculture in the District of Columbia, in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above.

MISCELLANEOUS.

* * * * *

An appropriation, here omitted, to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to carry into effect the provisions of act April 26, 1910, c. 191, is set forth on p. 54, post, under "Insecticide Act of 1910."

An appropriation, here omitted, to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to carry into effect the provisions of act August 20, 1912, c. 308, is set forth on p. 56, post, under "Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912."

Provisions, here omitted, for the terminal inspection by State officials of plants and plant products transmitted through the mails, in order to prevent the introduction or dissemination of injurious pests, and making it unlawful to deposit packages containing plants or plant products without marking the contents on the outside thereof, and prescribing a penalty therefor, are set forth on p. 55, post, under "Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912."

An appropriation, here omitted, to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to carry out an agreement with the State of Washington looking to the exchange of lands and indemnity rights, is set forth on p. 31, post, under "Forest Service."

An appropriation, here omitted, to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to cooperate with those States in the inspection of Irish potatoes where a quarantine has been established by the Secretary of Agriculture, is set forth on p. 56, post, under "Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912."

DEMONSTRATIONS ON RECLAMATION PROJECTS: To enable the Secretary of Agriculture to encourage and aid in the agricultural development of the Government reclamation projects; to assist, through demonstrations, advice, and in other ways, settlers on the projects; and for the employment of persons and means necessary in the city of Washington and elsewhere, $40,000.

INTERNATIONAL DRY FARMING CONGRESS, DENVER, COLORADO: To enable the Secretary of Agriculture to cooperate with and make an exhibit at the next annual meeting of the International Dry Farming Congress, to be held at Denver, Colorado, during the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and sixteen, illustrative of the investigations, products, and processes relating to farming in the subhumid, arid, and semiarid regions of the United States, including labor and all expenses in the city of Washington and elsewhere, $20,000.

That the President is hereby authorized to extend invitations to other nations to appoint delegates or representatives to the International Dry-Farming Congress, to be held at Denver, Colorado, September twenty-seventh to October eighth, inclusive, nineteen hundred and fifteen: Provided, That no appropriation shall be granted or used for the expenses of delegates.

* * * * *

An appropriation, here omitted, for cooperation with any State or group of States in the protection from fire of the forested watersheds of navigable streams, under the provisions of section 2 of act March 1, 1911, c. 186, is set forth on p. 37, post, under "Forest Service."

An appropriation, here omitted, to enable the Secretary of Agriculture, in cooperation with the authorities of the States concerned, or with individuals, to make investigations and demonstrations in connection with the development of live-stock production in the cane-sugar and cotton districts of the United States, is set forth on p. 19, post, under "Bureau of Animal Industry."

A paragraph, here omitted, authorizing the Secretary of Agriculture to sell or exchange such animals or animal products as cease to be needed, and providing for the deposit of the proceeds, is set forth on p. 16, post, under "Bureau of Animal Industry."

NAVAL STORES INVESTIGATIONS: For investigating the grading, weighing, and handling of naval stores, and preparation of definite type samples thereof, including the employment of necessary persons and means in the city of Washington and elsewhere, $5,000.

* * * * *

Provisions, here omitted, making available not to exceed $55,000 of the lump-sum appropriations of this act for the purchase, maintenance, etc., of motor-propelled, horse-drawn, and passenger-carrying vehicles and motor boats, outside the District of Columbia, limiting the amount to be expended for the purchase of such vehicles and boats to $5,000, restricting their use to official business, and requiring the Secretary of Agriculture to report to Congress on the amount expended, is set forth on p. 7, ante.

An appropriation, here omitted, for the arrest and eradication of contagious or infectious diseases of animals in case of emergency, is set forth on p. 16, post, under "Bureau of Animal Industry."

The unexpended balance on June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and fourteen, remaining to the credit of the appropriation authorized in the Agricultural appropriation Act approved March fourth, nineteen hundred and thirteen, for the expenses of a commission to investigate and report to Congress on European cooperative land-mortgage banks and rural-credit unions, is hereby appropriated and made available for the fiscal years nineteen hundred and fifteen and nineteen hundred and sixteen, including expenses incurred since the end of the fiscal year nineteen hundred and fourteen, for the purposes set forth in said Act, to be paid out on the audit and order of the chairman of said commission; and such audit and order shall be conclusive and binding upon all departments as to the correctness of the accounts of such commission under this appropriation and under the appropriation made for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and fourteen.

* * * * *

A provision, here omitted, setting aside certain lands in Oklahoma, formerly a part of the Kiowa, Comanche, and Apache Indian Reservation, for use of the Department of Agriculture for a dry farming or subhumid station, and an appropriation to pay the Indians therefor, are set forth on p. 21, post, under "Bureau of Plant Industry."

That there is hereby constituted a joint committee of the Senate and House of Representatives, to consist of the chairman of the Senate Committee on Agriculture and Forestry, the chairman of the House Committee on Agriculture, and the chairmen of the Committees on Banking and Currency of the two Houses, and two other members of each of said committees, to be designated by the chairmen of the respective committees, and it shall be the duty of said joint committee to prepare, after such investigations as may be deemed necessary, and report to the Congress on or before January first, nineteen hundred and sixteen, a bill or bills providing for the establishment of a system of rural credits adapted to American needs and conditions. The sum of $10,000 is hereby appropriated, the same to be immediately available, out of any funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to defray all necessary expenses of said joint committee, payment of said expenses to be made upon vouchers approved by the chairman of said joint committee, who shall be selected by the committee.

Total carried by this bill for the Department of Agriculture, $22,971,582.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1086.

The foregoing are provisions of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above.

WEATHER BUREAU.

(See "Laws Applicable to the United States Department of Agriculture," 1912, pp. 33-40; "Second Supplement," pp. 14-16.)

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 144. (38 Stat. 1086.)

Restriction on printing by the Weather Bureau.

* * * That no printing shall be done by the Weather Bureau that, in the judgment of the Secretary of Agriculture, can be done at the Government Printing Office without impairing the service of said bureau.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1088.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for the maintenance of a printing office for the Weather Bureau in Washington for the printing of weather maps, bulletins, etc., in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above.

Section 31 of act January 12, 1895, c. 23, set forth in "Laws Applicable to the United States Department of Agriculture," 1912, p. 363, excepts the printing office of the Weather Bureau from the provisions that all printing offices in the departments shall be a part of the Government Printing Office, and under the control of the Public Printer, who shall furnish all machinery and material for said offices, and paper, etc., except letter and note paper and envelopes, and that all employees in said offices shall be appointed by and responsible to him.

ACT MARCH 3, 1915, c. 83. (38 Stat. 928.)

Advisory Committee for Aeronautics established; representative of Weather Bureau to be a member.

An Advisory Committee for Aeronautics is hereby established, and the President is authorized to appoint not to exceed twelve members, to consist of two members from the War Department, from the office in charge of military aeronautics; two members from the Navy Department, from the office in charge of naval aeronautics; a representative each of the Smithsonian Institution, of the United States Weather Bureau, and of the United States Bureau of Standards; together with not more than five additional persons who shall be acquainted with the needs of aeronautical science, either civil or military, or skilled in aeronautical engineering or its allied sciences: Provided, That the members of the Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, as such, shall serve without compensation: Provided further, That it shall be the duty of the Advisory Committee for Aeronautics to supervise and direct the scientific study of the problems of flight, with a view to their practical solution, and to determine the problems which should be experimentally attacked, and to discuss their solution and their application to practical questions. In the event of a laboratory or laboratories, either in whole or in part, being placed under the direction of the committee, the committee may direct and conduct research and experiment in aeronautics in such laboratory or laboratories: And provided further, That rules and regulations for the conduct of the work of the committee shall be formulated by the committee and approved by the President.

That the sum of $5,000 a year, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for five years is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be immediately available, for experimental work and investigations undertaken by the committee, clerical expenses and supplies, and necessary expenses of members of the committee in going to, returning from, and while attending, meetings of the committee: Provided, That an annual report to the Congress shall be submitted through the President, including an itemized statement of expenditures.

Act March 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 930.

This is a paragraph of the naval service appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 144. (38 Stat. 1086.)

This is a paragraph, under the heading "Miscellaneous," of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above.

ACT JANUARY 25, 1915, c. 16. (38 Stat. 795.)

For the arrest and eradication of the foot-and-mouth disease, the payment of claims arising out of past and future purchases and destruction of animals affected by or exposed to the foot-and-mouth disease, and for a deficiency in the objects specified under the head "General expenses, Bureau of Animal Industry," in the Agricultural appropriation Act for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and fifteen, $2,500,000, to be expended by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Act January 25, 1915, c. 16, 38 Stat. 797.

This is a paragraph of the urgent deficiencies appropriation act for the fiscal year 1915 and prior years, cited above.

BUREAU OF PLANT INDUSTRY.

(See "Laws Applicable to the United States Department of Agriculture," 1912, pp. 41-74; "Second Supplement," pp. 17-31.)

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 144. (38 Stat. 1086.)

Expenses of purchase, distribution, etc., of seeds, plants, etc.; seeds, plants, etc., to be of best and adapted to localities; contracts for packets, etc., and packetting, etc., seeds, plants, etc.; allotment of seeds, plants, etc., to members of Congress for distribution; distribution of uncalled for allotments; report of place, quantity, price, and date of seeds purchased; diversion of appropriation forbidden; purchase and distribution of drouth-resistant seeds.

PURCHASE AND DISTRIBUTION OF VALUABLE SEEDS: For purchase, propagation, testing, and congressional distribution of valuable seeds, bulbs, trees, shrubs, vines, cuttings, and plants; all necessary office fixtures and supplies, fuel, transportation, paper, twine, gum, postal cards, gas, electric current, rent outside of the District of Columbia, official traveling expenses, and all necessary material and repairs for putting up and distributing the same; for repairs and the employment of local and special agents, clerks, assistants, and other labor required, in the city of Washington and elsewhere, $252,540. And the Secretary of Agriculture is hereby directed to expend the said sum, as nearly as practicable, in the purchase, testing, and distribution of such valuable seeds, bulbs, shrubs, vines, cuttings, and plants, the best he can obtain at public or private sale, and such as shall be suitable for the respective localities to which the same are to be apportioned, and in which same are to be distributed as hereinafter stated, and such seeds so purchased shall include a variety of vegetable and flower seeds suitable for planting and culture in the various sections of the United States: Provided, That the Secretary of Agriculture, after due advertisement and on competitive bids, is authorized to award the contract for the supplying of printed packets and envelopes and the packetting, assembling, and mailing of the seeds, bulbs, shrubs, vines, cuttings, and plants, or any part thereof, for a period of not more than five years nor less than one year, if by such action he can best protect the interests of the United States. An equal proportion of five-sixths of all seeds, bulbs, shrubs, vines, cuttings, and plants shall, upon their request, after due notification by the Secretary of Agriculture that the allotment to their respective districts is ready for distribution, be supplied to Senators, Representatives, and Delegates in Congress for distribution among their constituents, or mailed by the department upon the receipt of their addressed franks, in packages of such weight as the Secretary of Agriculture and the Postmaster General may jointly determine: Provided, however, That upon each envelope or wrapper containing packages of seeds the contents thereof shall be plainly indicated, and the Secretary shall not distribute to any Senator, Representative, or Delegate seeds entirely unfit for the climate and locality he represents, but shall distribute the same so that each Member may have seeds of equal value, as near as may be, and the best adapted to the locality he represents: Provided, also, That the seeds allotted to Senators and Representatives for distribution in the districts embraced within the twenty-fifth and thirty-fourth parallels of latitude shall be ready for delivery not later than the tenth day of January: Provided, also, That any portion of the allotments to Senators, Representatives, and Delegates in Congress remaining uncalled for on the first day of April shall be distributed by the Secretary of Agriculture, giving preference to those persons whose names and addresses have been furnished by Senators and Representatives in Congress and who have not before during the same season been supplied by the department: And provided, also, That the Secretary shall report, as provided in this Act, the place, quantity, and price of seeds purchased, and the date of purchase; but nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prevent the Secretary of Agriculture from sending seeds to those who apply for the same. And the amount herein appropriated shall not be diverted or used for any other purpose but for the purchase, testing, propagation, and distribution of valuable seeds, bulbs, mulberry and other rare and valuable trees, shrubs, vines, cuttings, and plants.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1094.

These are provisions contained in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above, and are reenactments, with alterations and additions, of those contained in the agricultural appropriation acts for the fiscal years 1881 and thereafter.

"It is questionable to what extent, if at all, its provisions can be considered permanent, or whether each is in force only in relation to the particular appropriation made by the act in which each appears." (Compiler's note, 1 Supp. U. S. Rev. St. 773.)

Provisions that seeds transmitted by the Secretary of Agriculture or by members of Congress may pass through the mails free of charge, contained in act March 3, 1875, c. 128, s. 7, are set forth in "Laws Applicable to the United States Department of Agriculture," 1912, p. 76.

Provisions for the printing and furnishing by the Public Printer of franks required for sending out seeds on Congressional orders are contained in Res. May 19, 1902, No. 23, set forth in "Laws Applicable to the United States Department of Agriculture," 1912, p. 77.

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 144. (38 Stat. 1086.)

Certain Indian lands set aside for use of Department of Agriculture for a dry farming or subhumid station.

The north half of the south half of section nineteen, township two north, range eleven west, Indian meridian, Oklahoma, formerly a part of the Kiowa, Comanche, and Apache Indian Reservation, is hereby set aside for use of the Department of Agriculture for a dry farming or subhumid station; and the sum of $200 is hereby appropriated to pay the Indians therefor, which sum shall be placed on deposit in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the fund "Interest on Apache, Kiowa, and Comanche four per cent fund (benefits)."

This is a provision accompanying an appropriation under "General Expenses, Forest Service," in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above.

A provision in the same language was contained in the agricultural appropriation act for the two preceding fiscal years. Provisions in similar language, but with certain exceptions applicable to the Black Hills and Harney National Forests in South Dakota, contained in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year 1913, act August 10, 1912, c. 284, are set forth in "Laws Applicable to the United States Department of Agriculture," 1912, p. 92.

Pulp wood or wood pulp manufactured from timber in Alaska may be exported therefrom under act February 1, 1905, c. 288, s. 2, set forth in "Laws Applicable to the United States Department of Agriculture," 1912, p. 93.

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 144. (38 Stat. 1086.)

Taking earth, stone, and timber from national forests for use of the Navy and for Government railways, etc., in Alaska, authorized; report in estimates of quantity and value furnished.

That hereafter the Secretary of Agriculture, under regulations to be prescribed by him, is hereby authorized to permit the Navy Department to take from the national forests such earth, stone, and timber for the use of the Navy as may be compatible with the administration of the national forests for the purposes for which they are established, and also in the same manner to permit the taking of earth, stone, and timber from the national forests for the construction of Government railways and other Government works in Alaska: Provided, That the Secretary of Agriculture shall submit with his annual estimates a report of the quantity and market value of earth, stone, and timber furnished as herein provided.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1100.

This is a paragraph of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 144. (38 Stat. 1086.)

Use of spaces in national forests for summer homes, hotels, stores, etc., authorized; homestead entry upon agricultural lands not affected.

That hereafter the Secretary of Agriculture may, upon such terms as he may deem proper, for periods not exceeding thirty years, permit responsible persons or associations to use and occupy suitable spaces or portions of ground in the national forests for the construction of summer homes, hotels, stores, or other structures needed for recreation or public convenience, not exceeding five acres to any one person or association, but this shall not be construed to interfere with the right to enter homesteads upon agricultural lands in national forests as now provided by law.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1101.

This is a paragraph of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 173. An act to reserve certain lands and to incorporate the same and make them a part of the Pike National Forest. (38 Stat. 1194.)

Certain lands made a part of Pike National Forest, subject to prior adverse rights.

That all lands in the State of Colorado hereinafter described, to wit:

In township four south, range seventy-two west, sixth principal meridian: Section six, section seven;

In township four south, range seventy-four west, sixth principal meridian: East half section twenty-four, east half section twenty-five; total, sixteen thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight and forty-nine one-hundredths acres, more or less—be, and the same are hereby, reserved, subject to all prior valid adverse rights, and made a part of and included in the Pike National Forest.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 173, 38 Stat. 1194.

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 174. An act granting the El Paso and Rock Island Railway Company a right of way for its pipe lines and reservoir upon the Lincoln National Forest for the carrying and storage of water for railroad purposes (38 Stat. 1195).

Right of way through Lincoln National Forest granted to El Paso & Rock Island Railway Co., for pipe lines and reservoir; reversion on nonuse.

That a right of way is hereby granted to the El Paso and Rock Island Railway Company, a corporation organized under the laws of New Mexico, its successors and assigns, over, through, across, and upon the Lincoln National Forest, in the State of New Mexico, subject to the conditions herein contained, for the construction, maintenance, and operation of its present pipe lines now located thereupon, and such additions and extensions as it may make thereto, for the purpose of enabling it to carry water owned or in the future acquired by it to and along its railroad right of way situated outside of such national forest for use in its locomotive engines, cars, trains, railroad shops, and tanks, and other railroad purposes, together with a right of way over and right to improve, construct, maintain, use, and occupy the present reservoir site now used and occupied by such railroad company for the storage of water for such purposes: Provided, That the Secretary of Agriculture may upon abandonment or nonuse of the same for the purpose for which it is granted for a period not less than one year declare said right of way or any part thereof forfeited and annul the same.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 174, s. 1, 38 Stat. 1194.

Width of right of way for pipe lines; maps; approval.

SEC. 2. That the right of way hereby granted for such pipe lines shall be so much as may be necessary only for such purposes, not to exceed, however, twenty-five feet on each side of the present center thereof where the same is already constructed, and an equal width for all extensions thereof, or additions thereto; and maps of the location of any such extensions or additions to such pipe lines shall be prepared by the company and submitted to the Secretary of Agriculture, in accordance with his directions with reference thereto, for his approval, and the right of way as to the same shall take effect from his approval thereof only.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 174, s. 2, 38 Stat. 1195.

Conformity with regulations; limitation on cutting timber, payment for timber and wood cut.

SEC. 3. That the company shall conform to all and singular the regulations adopted or prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture governing such national forest, or the use or users thereof, and shall not take, cut, or destroy any timber within the same except such as it may be actually necessary to remove to construct its said pipe lines and the structures pertaining thereto, and it shall pay to the proper officer of the Forest Service the full value of all timber and wood cut, used, or destroyed by it within the said national forest.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 174, s. 3, 38 Stat. 1195.

Private rights protected; grant not to affect control of water under laws.

SEC. 4. That no private right, title, or interest owned by any person, persons, or corporation in such national forest shall be interfered with or abridged except with the consent of the owner or owners or by due process of law and just compensation to said owner or owners; nor shall the privileges herein granted be construed to interfere with the control of water for any purpose under the laws of the United States or of the State of New Mexico.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 174, s. 4, 38 Stat. 1195.

Grant subject to laws and regulations relating to national forests; liability for infractions; rights forfeitable for continuous infractions or failure of payment.

SEC. 5. That the enjoyment of the rights hereby granted shall be subject at all times to all laws relating to the national forests and to all rules and regulations authorized and established thereunder. For infraction of such laws, rules, or regulations the owner or user of such right of way shall be subject to all fines and penalties imposed thereby, and shall also be liable in a civil action for all damages that may accrue from such breach, and if such infractions are continuous and willful, or if there is continued failure on the part of such company to pay any amount due the forest service from said company, for a period of sixty days after notice of the continuance of such infraction or of the amount so due, the rights herein granted shall be and become forfeitable in accordance with law.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 174, s. 5, 38 Stat. 1195.

Grantee required to maintain water supply for grazing animals.

SEC. 6. That the company shall continue to maintain the present watering troughs and supply water as at present for the use of animals lawfully grazing upon such national forest or at such other place along such pipe line, in lieu thereof, as the officer in charge of such national forest shall from time to time direct.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 174, s. 6, 38 Stat. 1196.

Limitation in time of construction and use.

SEC. 7. That all right of way hereunder for such pipe line not constructed and in use within three years from the date hereof shall cease and determine at the expiration of such period.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 174, s. 7, 38 Stat. 1196.

Act not to be construed as recognition of claims or waiver of stipulation of grantee concerning certain water rights in litigation.

SEC. 8. That this Act shall not be construed as a recognition of any claim of the El Paso and Rock Island Railway Company, of or concerning water rights in the Hondo River or its tributaries, or of any claim of right to divert water from the watersheds of said streams, or as a waiver of any stipulation heretofore agreed to by the said company for use in the litigation concerning water rights pending in the United States district court for the district of New Mexico in which the United States and the said company are parties.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 174, s. 8, 38 Stat. 1196.

ACT FEBRUARY 27, 1915, c. 65. An act to authorize the Great Northern Railway Company to revise the location of its right of way, and for other purposes. (38 Stat. 814.)

Revision of right of way of Great Northern Railway Co. along southern boundary of Glacier National Park, authorized; lands north of revised line to be excluded from Lewis and Clark National Forest; lands south of revised line to become a part of Lewis and Clark National Forest and subject to national forest laws and regulations.

That, with the consent and approval of the Secretary of the Interior and upon the filing with the Interior Department and the approval thereof by said Secretary of maps of definite location within three years from the passage of this Act, the Great Northern Railway Company, a corporation of the State of Minnesota, be, and it is hereby, authorized to revise the location of that part of its line of railway along the southern boundary of the Glacier National Park, in the State of Montana, on the terms and conditions and subject to the limitations and restrictions granted by and contained in an Act of Congress entitled "An Act granting to railroads the right of way through the public lands of the United States," approved March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-five (Eighteenth Statutes, page four hundred and eighty-two), as amended by an Act of Congress entitled "An Act making appropriations to supply deficiencies in the appropriations for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, and for prior years, and for other purposes," approved March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine (Thirty-ninth Statutes, page twelve hundred and thirty-three) : Provided, That all lands north of the north line of the revised right of way, when said revised line of right of way shall have been approved as aforesaid, shall be excluded from the Lewis and Clark National Forest and become and remain part of the Glacier National Park, and be subject to all the provisions of an Act of Congress entitled "An Act to establish 'the Glacier National Park' in the Rocky Mountains south of the international boundary line in the State of Montana, and for other purposes," approved May eleventh, nineteen hundred and ten (Thirty-sixth Statutes, page three hundred and fifty-four), and to all the provisions of any Act of Congress that may hereafter be passed relative to said park, and the regulations of the Secretary of the Interior heretofore or hereafter prescribed in accordance with law for the Government of the Park, and that any and all lands south of the north line of such revised line of right of way which may now be within the Glacier National Park shall become and remain a part of the Lewis and Clark National Forest and be subject to and be governed by the laws heretofore or hereafter enacted by Congress and the regulations heretofore or hereafter prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture for the control of national forests: Provided further, That before the Secretary of the Interior shall consent to and approve the revision of location herein authorized, the Great Northern Railway Company shall file with the said Secretary a relinquishment of all claims of whatever nature to that portion of its right of way affected by said revised location.

Act February 27, 1915, c. 65, 38 Stat. 814.

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 144. (38 Stat. 1086.)

Furnishing young trees from Nebraska National Forest to residents of arid region.

PLANT QUARANTINE ACT OF AUGUST 20, 1912.

(See "Laws Applicable to the United States Department of Agriculture," 1912, pp. 264-269; "Second Supplement," p. 88.)

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 144. (38 Stat. 1086.)

Officials of States maintaining terminal inspection authorized to submit to Secretary of Agriculture lists of plants, etc., requiring inspection; Secretary of Agriculture required to submit such lists upon approval to Postmaster General; postmasters required to forward packages of such plants, etc., to State inspector; such plants, etc., found free of pests to be delivered to addressee; plants, etc., found infested to be returned to sender or destroyed.

That hereafter when any State shall provide for terminal inspection of plants and plant products, and shall establish and maintain, at the sole expense of the State, such inspection at one or more places therein, the proper officials of said State may submit to the Secretary of Agriculture a list of plants and plant products and the plant pests transmitted thereby, that in the opinion of said officials should be subject to terminal inspection in order to prevent the introduction or dissemination in said State of pests injurious to agriculture. Upon his approval of said list, in whole or in part, the Secretary of Agriculture shall transmit the same to the Postmaster General, and thereafter all packages containing any plants or plant products named in said approved lists shall, upon payment of postage therefor, be forwarded by the postmaster at the destination of said package to the proper State official at the nearest place where inspection is maintained. If the plant or plant products are found upon inspection to be free from injurious pests, or if infected shall be disinfected by said official, they shall upon payment of postage therefor be returned to the postmaster at the place of inspection to be forwarded to the person to whom they are addressed; but if found to be infected with injurious pests and incapable of satisfactory disinfection the State inspector shall so notify the postmaster at the place of inspection, who shall promptly notify the sender of said plants or plant products that they will be returned to him upon his request and at his expense, or in default of such request that they will be turned over to the State authorities for destruction.

Depositing in mails of packages containing plants, etc., addressed to place in a State maintaining terminal inspection, without marking contents thereon, unlawful; punishment.

On and after the passage and approval of this Act it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to deposit in the United States mails any package containing any plant or plant product addressed to any place within a State maintaining inspection thereof, as herein defined, without plainly marking the package so that its contents may be readily ascertained by an inspection of the outside thereof. Whoever shall fail to so mark said packages shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100.

Regulations by Postmaster General.

The Postmaster General is hereby authorized and directed to make all needful rules and regulations for carrying out the purposes hereof.

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 141. (38 Stat. 997.)

Establishment of efficiency ratings for classified service; investigation of needs of departments with respect to personnel; investigation of duplication of work and methods of business.

DIVISION OF EFFICIENCY: For establishment and maintenance of system of efficiency ratings, pursuant to section four of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation Act for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and thirteen, for investigation of the needs of the several executive departments and independent establishments with respect to personnel; and for investigation of duplication of statistical and other work and methods of business in the various branches of the Government service; including not more than $2,500 for equipment, supplies, stationery, books, and printing; and not more than $50 for street car fare, $30,000; the chief of the Division of Efficiency herein provided for shall be appointed by the President and shall report to Congress at the beginning of each regular session, through the President, the nature and progress of work undertaken by the division together with a detailed statement of expenditures showing the persons employed, their duties, and the compensation paid to each: * * *

Act March 4, 1915, c. 141, s. 1, 38 Stat. 1007.

This is a provision, under "Civil Service Commission," of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above. A similar provision was contained in the similar act for the preceding fiscal year.

Section 4, act August 23, 1912, c. 350, referred to in this provision, is set forth in "Laws Applicable to the United States Department of Agriculture, 1912," p. 280.

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 141. (38 Stat. 997.)

Details of clerks and employees from departments to Civil Service Commission for duty in the District of Columbia, forbidden.

No detail of clerks or other employees from the executive departments or other Government establishments in Washington, District of Columbia, to the Civil Service Commission, for the performance of duty in the District of Columbia, shall be made for or during the fiscal year nineteen hundred and sixteen.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 141, s. 1, 38 Stat. 1007.

This is a paragraph of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above. Similar provisions were contained in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year 1906 and subsequent similar acts previous to this act.

ESTIMATES AND REPORTS.

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 143. (38 Stat. 1062.)

Accounts between the War Department and other departments; payment.

* * * That hereafter in the settlement of accounts between the appropriations of the Medical Department and those of any other branch of the Army service, or any bureau or office of the War Department, or any other executive department or establishment of the Government, payment thereof may be made by the proper disbursing officer of the Medical Department or of the branch of the Army service, office, bureau, department, or establishment concerned.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 143, s. 1, 38 Stat. 1080.

This is a proviso annexed to appropriations for the Medical Department in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above.

PUBLIC PROPERTY.

(See "Laws Applicable to the United States Department of Agriculture," 1912, pp. 355-359; "Second Supplement," pp. 107-108.)

ACT MARCH 3, 1915, c. 75. (38 Stat. 822.)

Use of furniture although not corresponding to regulation plan.

All furniture now owned by the United States in other public buildings and in buildings rented by the United States shall be used, so far as practicable, whether it corresponds with the present regulation plan for furniture or not.

Act March 3, 1915, c. 75, s. 1, 38 Stat. 832.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above, following an appropriation for furniture, carpets, gas and electric fixtures and repairs of same, for all public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department. Similar provisions were contained in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year 1901 and each similar act thereafter previous to this act.

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 147. (38 Stat. 1138.)

Exchange of typewriters, adding machines, etc., in part payment for new machines, authorized; report as to details of exchanges.

SEC. 5. That the executive departments and other Government establishments and all branches of the public service may hereafter exchange typewriters, adding machines, and other similar labor saving devices in part payment for new machines used for the same purpose as those proposed to be exchanged. There shall be submitted to Congress, on the first day of the session following the close of each fiscal year, a report showing, as to each exchange hereunder, the make of the article, the period of its use, the allowance therefor, and the article, make thereof, and price, including exchange value, paid or to be paid for each article procured through such exchange.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 147, s. 5, 38 Stat. 1161.

These are provisions of the deficiencies appropriation act for the fiscal year 1915 and prior years, cited above.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS.

(See "Laws Applicable to the United States Department of Agriculture," 1912, pp. 359-363; "Second Supplement," p. 108.)

PUBLIC PRINTING.

(See "Laws Applicable to the United States Department of Agriculture," 1912, pp. 363-368; "Second Supplement," pp. 109-110.)

ACT MARCH 3, 1915, c. 75. (38 Stat. 822.)

Printing and binding annual reports; requirements as to copy, etc.

SEC. 4. That appropriations herein for printing and binding shall not be used for any annual report or the accompanying documents unless the copy therefor is furnished to the Public Printer in the following manner: Copies of the documents accompanying such annual reports on or before the fifteenth day of October of each year; copies of the annual reports on or before the fifteenth day of November of each year; and complete revised proofs of the accompanying documents and the annual reports on the tenth and twentieth days of November of each year, respectively.

Act March 3, 1915, c. 75, s. 4, 38 Stat. 886.

This is a section of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above. A like provision was contained in the similar act for the preceding fiscal year.

ACT MARCH 4, 1915, c. 147. (38 Stat. 1138.)

The cost of printing and binding done for the General Supply Committee during the fiscal year nineteen hundred and fifteen shall be borne proportionately out of the allotments for printing and binding of the several executive departments and other Government establishments, based as nearly as may be on the services rendered them respectively by said committee.

Act March 4, 1915, c. 147, s. 1, 38 Stat. 1154.

This is a paragraph, under "Government Printing Office," of the deficiencies appropriation act for the fiscal year 1915 and prior years, cited above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1915, c. 75. (38 Stat. 822.)

Allotment of appropriation for printing and binding.

That no more than an allotment of one-half of the sum hereby appropriated for the public printing and for the public binding shall be expended in the first two quarters of the fiscal year, and no more than one-fourth thereof may be expended in either of the last two quarters of the fiscal year, except that, in addition thereto, in either of said last quarters the unexpended balances of allotments for preceding quarters may be expended; and no department or Government establishment shall consume in any such period a greater percentage of its allotment than can be lawfully expended during the same period of the whole appropriation.

Restriction on printing and binding.

Money appropriated under the foregoing allotments shall not be expended for printing or binding for any of the executive departments or other Government establishments except such as shall be certified in writing to the Public Printer by the respective heads or chiefs thereof to be necessary to conduct the ordinary and routine business required by law of such executive departments or Government establishments, and except such reports, monographs, bulletins, or other publications as are authorized by law or specifically provided for in appropriations herein; all other printing required or deemed necessary or desirable by heads of executive departments or other Government establishments or offices or bureaus thereof shall be done only as Congress shall from time to time authorize.

Restriction on detail of employees of Government Printing Office to other executive branches of the public service.

No part of any money appropriated in this Act shall be paid to any person employed in the Government Printing Office while detailed for or performing service in any other executive branch of the public service of the United States unless such detail be authorized by law.

Apportionment of expenditures to work executed.

All expenditures from appropriations made herein under Government Printing Office, except appropriations for salaries and for stores and general expenses in and for the office of superintendent of documents, * * * shall be equitably apportioned and charged by the Public Printer to each publication or work executed under any of the foregoing allotments, so that the total charges for work done from the appropriations aforesaid shall not be less than the total amount actually expended from all of said appropriations.

Act March 3, 1915, c. 75, s. 1, 38 Stat. 882.

These are paragraphs, under the head "Public Printing and Binding," of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year 1916, cited above.

The first paragraph set forth above is a reenactment, in the same words, of provisions of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year 1912, which was repeated in the subsequent similar acts previous to this act.

The last paragraph set forth above is a reenactment of a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year 1911, which was repeated in the subsequent similar acts previous to this act.
